

Kristen Croxton

Vice President, Origination

Deutsche Bank Berkshire Mortgage, Inc.

Kristen Croxton joined Deutsche Bank Berkshire Mortgage in 1997. As an Originator in the Irvine Office, Ms. Croxton's primary responsibilities include originating multifamily and commercial loans nationwide. Ms. Croxton has experience in a variety of loan programs including fixed rate, floating rate, supplemental, tax-exempt bonds, affordable forwards, seniors housing, student housing and credit facilities. While Ms. Croxton specializes in Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and FHA loans, she also has experience with Deutsche Bank's Bridge and Conduit programs.

Previously, Ms. Croxton was the Freddie Mac Product Manager for four years, starting in the Bethesda, MD office before moving to California to work in the Irvine Office in early 2003. Prior to that role, she held the position of Senior Underwriter.

Ms. Croxton received her B.A. in Finance from James Madison University in Virginia.
