

Nick Hannon

Senior Vice President Territory Inc.

Mr. Hannon has a 30 year commercial real estate background which is national in scope. As a developer he has originated and developed over $250,000,000 worth of shopping centers in the western United States. Prior to development, he functioned in acquisitions, asset management and in senior leadership roles with Mass Mutual, Mutual of New York and Consolidated Capital. Additionally he co founded American Income Properties (NYSE- REIT) which was a shopping center REIT. He has been a licensed Real Estate broker in 4 states. Mr. Hannon has a BS degree from Northern Arizona University with a real estate graduate certification from University of California, Irvine.

Territory Incorporated is a Las Vegas-based development company and a market leader among retail developers. Territory Incorporated has developed more than 3 million square feet of space with an additional 2 million square feet in active development. For more than 15 years, Territory's team of experienced, enthusiastic and skilled professionals has brought nationally recognized anchor tenants to its quality locations. Territory provides development, leasing, and property management services.